

Mien & Family News -- from C. W. Callaway, September 2016

Thrice blessed

At least I hope you will consider these 3 newsletters as blessings. Some of you will receive all 3 letters in one envelope.

But those for whom I have e-mail addresses will have already received copies of each as attachments.

CW, Joyce, Mark

With 3 of my 5 kids

From Aug. 25-30th my second son, Mark, was here for a visit from Arizona and daughter Joyce from Oregon. One day he, she and I made a tour of Mare Island. We drove around it reflecting on what it was like there when my brother Burl was based there during World War II. Most memorable was the naval museum which Joyce and I had toured a year or two ago. In it is a reconstruction of the control room of one of the many submarines built there. We took turns looking through the periscope. We did not spot any enemy ships but did get a good view of Vallejo through the scope! Then we sat down at the controls. In the first picture below you can see Mark piloting the USS MARIANO G. VALLEJO SSBN 658 while Joyce and I are just enjoying the voyage!

That Saturday we had a nice BBQ picnic at American Canyon Veterans Park. It was windy and cool but a fun time. Jeni had made and neatly decorated cup cakes and several mini cakes to celebrate Mark & Joyce's July birthdays and Nathan and my August birthdays. While Joyce & Mark were here we also did a lot of co-editing of Lois' seven studies entitled "A Pilgrim Ponders Prayer." We hope to be able to begin posting the first of these studies on www.mohteacher.org within the next few months.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU is due

and is hereby given to each of you who help to distribute this newsheet and other news about the progress of the Gospel among the Mien and related ethnic groups. Thanks also for posting Mien Christian news on your church bulletin boards. I hope this will encourage many to pray for a mighty movement of God among these peoples.
