

These Short Books by Lois E. Callaway are now on www.mohteacher.org !!!

*7 Books by a Missionary
Wife and Mother on PRAYER*

These books were carefully written by Lois in the midst of many other duties during more than 45 years of service among the Mien. Many spiritual lessons are drawn from our trials and victories in those years. Twenty one years ago she received an early welcome home from the Lord she so dearly loved. Now at last my children and I have finally researched her many references and have finished editing these studies on this wonderful privilege of prayer. Book One is an introduction to the series. Covers for each book appear above. I hope you will read them all and be blessed by them.

*Also on that same web site under
C.W.'s Memoirs
you can now find chapter 7
about our wonderful
CO-WORKERS in the Chiang Kham area.*

More to come

Now that the books shown above are online I'm trying to finalize chapter 8 of my memoirs. Hopefully it can be posted soon. It may interest more of you than previous chapters since it tells the stories of our life in the Mien village from 1954 to 1961.

Other News

In my December letter I told of the passing of fellow missionary Mel Byers. Rinda Nash now has this memorial web site for her parents: <https://sites.google.com/site/meljunebyers/>

It is good to know that there is an increasing witness from various countries among Mien & Kim Mun in China.

In mid January I had a good profitable visit from Dr Mana & Kanika Karunawong. I knew her as Jingv. She and 2 sisters were Chinese living in Rom Yen village who came to Christ in the 1950s. She went to Chinese Bible college, married Pastor Mana. I visited them in Taiwan in 2000 when they were missionaries to Thai workmen there. They now serve Thai and Chinese in Thailand. But she remembers her Mien and will be helping Mien friends to provide data for the Mien history.

On Jan. 28th I enjoyed the informative celebration of Mien New Year at Mien Friendship church in Richmond, CA. There were Mien games & skits, explanation & singing of traditional Mien songs, and a traditional Mien orchestra. Dr. Youd Sinh recited his composition of a Mien rhyme (waac-puix) about God blessing us with such celebrations. Also Mien youth sang a contemporary rap in Mien of the Mien alphabet. It was a good Christ-honoring day.

My daughter Joyce visited me for 10 days end of Feb. We worked steadily on finalizing Lois' series on prayer. We want to thank all who prayed for her daughter Tina during her brain surgery. Tina recently had a broken ankle but is recovering from that as well as from the surgery and follow-up treatment. Thank you also for prayers for my youngest son David & wife Cathy.

Heaven's angels must have been singing on March 26th as 22 Mien believers were baptized at Portland, OR Fellowship Church. I had attended and preached at the dedication of their new sanctuary last June. "My Timothy" from the Chiang Kham youth dorm Pastor Prasarn Saelee (Yauz-Fuqv) is now serving there after many years with the Seattle Church.

With my love and prayers, CW
